

About Global Jet Services (GJS):

30 Tower Lane, Suite 200
Avon, CT 06001
(860) 651-6090
Globaljetservices.com

Global Jet Services (GJS) is a growing world leader in business aviation on-location maintenance, avionics, professional development and safety training. GJS provides a total solution that delivers high quality training that is unmatched for value and flexibility. GJS provides an excellent positive and supportive work environment with competitive compensation and benefits. GJS' main office is based in Avon, CT.

Position Overview:

GJS is seeking a highly qualified Training Manager (TM). This is a key position, responsible for compliance with FAA and other foreign Government approvals. As a TM you will be responsible for the following:

- Compliance of training approvals with many government agencies.
- Enhance excellent working relationship with government agency representatives and GJS employees.
- Provide information and direction to the management team and instructors.
- Provide subject matter support to our development team.
- Provide regulation direction to our sales department.
- Engage in domestic and international travel on an as needed basis.

Minimum Qualifications:

- A minimum of 10 years of aviation maintenance experience.
- QA / QC experience preferred.
- Excellent interpersonal skills.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Excellent computer skills.
- Excellent organizational and project management skills.
- Ability to work in environments that include; office, classroom, hangar and ramp.
- FAA Airframe and Powerplant certification preferred.
- Some college education preferred.

Candidates interested in this position, please send your resume to careers@globaljetservices.com