

A full service corporate aircraft operator in Southern California is seeking an experienced and qualified Corporate Jet Maintenance Technician. In addition to jet maintenance, the company provides aircraft management, on demand charter, aircraft fueling, and hangar space. The maintenance department is an FAA certified Part 145 Repair Station capable of a wide range of aircraft maintenance, inspections, warranty work, non-scheduled repairs, engine work and limited avionics. This position could focus on a variety of corporate jet aircraft including but not limited to the following manufactures Bombardier Global / Challenger, Gulfstream, Hawker, Falcon and Cessna series jet aircraft.

Description:

Under minimal supervision, perform inspections, maintenance, troubleshooting and repairs of moderate to advanced complexity on aircraft systems, engines and structures.

Essential Functions:

- Communicate as required to receive and understand work assignments.
- Perform complex aircraft inspections, pre and post flight checks, and repairs.
- Performs scheduled maintenance on aircraft systems and components in accordance with FAA regulations, manufacturers' recommendations, and the company manual and policies.
- Handle unscheduled maintenance and repairs of aircraft as needed.
- Properly use and maintain company facilities and equipment ensuring they are clean and safe.
- Ensures the maintenance procedures and documents (including computer records) are accurate, current, and in compliance with applicable company and government regulations.
- Perform other duties as assigned by the Director of Maintenance.

Required Qualifications:

- 5 years of experience working with corporate jet aircraft
- Valid Airframe & Powerplant license
- Valid Driver's License
- Team orientated and self-motivated

Desired (not mandatory) Qualities:

Experience with Falcon 2000 or Challenger 604/605 aircraft a plus!

Factory or Formal training a plus

Compensation and Benefits very competitive and adjusted to match skill and experience level.

Opportunity for advancement and growth within the company is up to you.

Contact / Send resume to:

Rob Cox

Vice President and Director of Maintenance

Phone: 805.389.9308 * Mobile: 818.645.1428

rcox@sunairjets.com