

A full service FBO in Southern California is seeking an experienced and qualified Corporate Jet Maintenance Technician. In addition to jet maintenance, the company provides aircraft management, on demand charter, aircraft fueling, and hangar space. The maintenance department is an FAA certified Part 145 Repair Station capable of a wide range of aircraft maintenance, inspections, warranty work, non-scheduled repairs, engine work and limited avionics. This position could focus on a verity of corporate jet aircraft including but not limited to the following manufactures Bombardier Global / Challenger, Gulfstream, Hawker, Falcon and Cessna series jet aircraft.

Description:

Under minimal supervision, perform inspections, maintenance, troubleshooting and repairs of moderate to advanced complexity on aircraft systems, engines and structures.

Essential Functions:

1. Communicate as required to receive and understand work assignments.
2. Perform complex aircraft inspections, pre and post flight checks, and repairs.
3. Performs scheduled maintenance on aircraft systems and components in accordance with FAA regulations, manufacturers' recommendations, and the company manual and policies.
4. Handle unscheduled maintenance and repairs of aircraft as needed.
5. Properly use and maintain company facilities and equipment ensuring they are clean and safe.
6. Ensures the maintenance procedures and documents (including computer records) are accurate, current, and in compliance with applicable company and government regulations.
7. Perform other duties as assigned by the Director of Maintenance.

Required Qualifications:

5 years of experience working with corporate jet aircraft
Valid Airframe & Powerplant license
Valid Driver's License
Experience performing maintenance on 1-2 of the aircraft types listed above.
Team orientated and self-motivated

Desired Qualities:

Extensive experience with Falcon or Cessna series jet aircraft a plus
Factory or Formal training a plus
Prior Supervisory or Lead experience a plus

Contact / send resume to:

Rob Cox
Vice President and Director of Maintenance
Phone: 805.389.9308 * Mobile: 818.645.1428
Camarillo Airport 855 Aviation Drive, Camarillo, CA 93010
rcox@sunairjets.com