

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

POSTING: SEPTEMBER 29, 2017

Facilities Maintenance Worker

Western Jet Aviation, a world-class business jet Part 145 MRO founded in 1999 and located on Van Nuys Airport (CA - KVNY) has an immediate opening for a full-time Facilities Maintenance Worker. Western Jet Aviation offers competitive pay along with medical and dental insurance, a 401(k) retirement plan and sick / vacation pay.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES:

- Reports to the Parts Manager.
- Responsible for the upkeep and maintenance of an aircraft hangar, offices and parking lot.
- Performs various routine facility maintenance and repairs including electrical, HVAC, drywall, carpentry, plumbing, painting and masonry.
- Able to repair and maintain electrical and motorized support equipment such as aircraft tugs, forklifts, scissor lifts and company owned van.
- Must be familiar with ground power units.
- Responsible for the oversight and completion of facility maintenance projects such as upgrades and working with contractors.
- Must be proactive in initiating required maintenance and be able to work well independently.

REQUIREMENTS:

- High School diploma or equivalent.
- Possession of various trade school certificates very helpful.
- Must provide own basic hand tools such as: crescent wrenches, screwdriver, hammer, socket set.
- Must have reliable transportation and clean driving record to be insurable by insurance carrier.
- Minimum 5 years related facilities maintenance experience in a hangar, manufacturing facility, automotive or distribution center.
- Be able to read, write and communicate effectively in English.
- PC skills with MS Office necessary.

Send resume in MS Word or PDF format to: jairheart@wja.aero.

Western Jet Aviation is an equal opportunity employer and drug-free workplace.